

TYPE AT NITE

Gutenberg's grandchildren

first in the 2000–2001 series

Wednesday

November 1, 2000

6 to 8 p.m.

@ the Type Directors Club

60 East 42 Street, Suite 721

New York City

(across from SW corner of Grand Central)

REFRESHMENTS WILL BE SERVED

TDC members $10

non-members $15

► RSVP by October 30

(212) 983-6042 | or: director@tdc.org

or about the enthusiasm you need to make books on typography in the 21st century

BERTRAM & KARIN SCHMIDT-FRIDERICHS

BERTRAM SCHMIDT-FRIDERICHS has been chairman TDC's very active German Liaison Committee since 1987, and for over ten years he has managed the annual TDC traveling exhibit in Germany. In the same period, he and his wife KARIN SCHMIDT-FRIDERICHS have run Verlag Hermann Schmidt Mainz as an actively engaged publishing house for books on typography, graphic design, and visual communication (located in Mainz, Gutenberg's home town). ¶Karin & Bertram will show their work, and will talk about the type scene in Germany, the activities of TDC's German members, and what it takes to survive in the small niche of books for graphic designers, type-lovers, and related maniacs.

Type
Directors
Club

60 E 42, Suite 721
New York NY 10165-0721

Type at Nite ▶